

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28

Merry Christmas to all our Friends and Family - and a Blessed and Happy 2013!

How have you been? We embrace this once-a-year opportunity to share with you what's been going on in our lives and how God keeps moving us along through it all. This past year in our household:

Vivvian-celebrated her Sweet 16 on the beach, started completing her 100 volunteer hours for her scholarship and traveled with us to visit Flagler College and University of Central Florida. We all-visited Sea World, went to the Sea and Sky Spectacular, attended a wedding for a couple from church, Jeff's workplace open house at Vistakon and a Bears-Jaguars game; traveled with

Jeff's Dad to West Virginia to spend Thanksgiving with Jeff's brothers and family; Jeff and Mary Ann-attended two family reunions, celebrated their anniversary (8th). Mary Ann-is making plans to graduate with her bachelor's degree in May 2013. Jeff-has taken up golf again and was fortunate to be able to play in a tournament at TPC Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra.

We are sad to report the loss of Jeff's stepmother, Mert, in early November. She was a real trooper, a giver and a second mom who is dearly missed.
